ERIE, PA (June 17, 2021) – Iroquois School District Foundation announced today that it will host the fourth annual Erie Food Truck Festival, on Saturday July 10th from 3 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the former G.E. Fields in Lawrence Park. After transforming into the Front Porch Festival – a daylong online music festival benefiting local food truck operators in 2020 – this year's festival is back in person and in tune with Erie's favorite headliner – The Groove.

The Erie Food Truck Festival will once again feature local fare provided by local food truck operators and an amazing lineup of local band for an afternoon of food, fun and entertainment. This year ticket sales will be capped at 2,500 so festival goers are encouraged to buy their $15 tickets in advance.

Advance tickets go on sale on Friday, June 18th at www.eriefoodtruckfestival.com. Your $15 advance ticket includes an Erie Food Truck Festival pint glass, access to local food trucks, and a fun filled lineup of local bands including headliner, The Groove.

“The Groove rocked our virtual Front Porch Festival during the pandemic, so they were the natural headliner for this year's return to the field,” said Food Truck Festival Chairperson and Iroquois School District Foundation Board Member, Kate Philips. “We're ready to get together and get tuned up again this year.”

Media Partners for this year's festival: Erie Reader, Happi 92.7, WICU-TV, WSEE-TV and Erie News Now.
Festival Sponsors include: ECGRA, Northwest Savings Bank, AMERICO Bank, Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield, Altair Real Estate, Parker Philips, Inc., Knox Law, Dusckas Funeral Homes
